AI Literacy for Adults: A Humanities-Based Approach to Safe and Effective Use

October 9, 2024 | 12pm EST

Join us for a discussion on a new way of using AI – one that leverages your existing skills and removes the fog and mystery from a process we already know and understand. Discover what safe and effective use of AI looks like, thereby bringing you one step closer to incorporating in your classroom in a way that is understandable, effective, and helpful to your students.
